NEWCHANGEFX on MarketDesk

Premium FX (benchmark) data delivered as you like it with New Change FX and MarketDesk

Since 2012, New Change FX (NCFX) is an award-winning Fintech company specializing in delivering price transparency to the FX markets with live, regulated, independent data and analytics.

NCFX partnered with MarketDesk, a revolutionary modern platform with global reach and real-time data success garnered from decades of experience in real-time Fintech exchanges to deliver FX market data. It's available via WebSocket, Real-Time Excel Add-In and both web and mobile app display.

Consolidated FX reference rates are published only through live ESMA registered and FCA authorized FX mid-rate benchmarks.

NCFX produces granular real-time FX available in live and historic formats covering Spot, Forward and NDF instruments. Live pricing feeds are aggregated across wholesale market sources and published in real-time markets mid-rate for objective trading venue or counterpart on any specified timeline.

NCFX delivers FX data through the MarketDesk platform with up to a billion price updates in continuously refreshed rates up to 20 times per second covering the full trading week. NCFX FX data is offered to individuals in varied workflows or systems, integrated via API, web, app and Real-Time Excel Add-In.

NCFX preserves the integrity of its pricing without submission from market-makers through the MarketDesk platform.
